CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

A Proclamation: By the Governor, L. Henry D. Hatfield, Governor of the State of West Virginia, pursuant to the Constitution and laws of said State, announcing to the voters of the State of West Virginia that, on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, in the year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixteen, at the general election held on that day, there will be submitted for ratification or rejection an amendment to the Constitution of said State as follows: to-wit:

Proposed Amendment. That Section one of the Constitution of said State for one year, and of the county in which he or she offers to vote, for sixty days next preceding such offer, shall be permitted to be voted at said election, in which they respectively reside; but no person who is a pauper or an unsound mind, or a pauper, or who is under conviction of treason or bribery in an election, or who has not been a resident of the State for one year, and of the county in which he or she offers to vote, for sixty days next preceding such offer, shall be permitted to vote while such disability continues; but no person in the military, naval or marine service of the United States shall be deemed a resident of this State by reason of being stationed therein.

The proposed amendment is designated "ANY SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT."

Amending Section one of Article Four. For ratification of Woman's Suffrage Amendment.

Adopted ratification of Woman's Suffrage Amendment.

Those favoring the ratification of said amendment will vote "For Ratification of Woman's Suffrage Amendment" and those opposing will vote "Against Ratification of Woman's Suffrage Amendment."
